

Sarah Liptrott RGN, BN(Hons), Onc Cert, MSc, PGCert Clin Res

Sarah Liptrott is a Steering Committee member of MDS Alliance. She works as a Research Nurse in Haematology / BMT at the European Institute of Oncology in Milan and is involved in both nurse led and clinical research. Her background includes surgical and medical oncology, specialising in Haematology since 2001 as a Clinical Nurse Specialist and Clinical Trial Team Leader responsible for the research team and achievement of UK national targets. She has authored and co-authored numerous articles in journals such as BMT, Breast, Leukaemia & Lymphoma, ecancermedicalscience and Nature Reviews Clinical Oncology, conference abstracts etc., and is an invited reviewer for journals such as EJON, and a member of the editorial board for ecancer journal. She is also active member of various European groups, namely the Haematology Nurses and Healthcare Professionals Group (Secretary), and the European Group for Blood and Marrow Transplantation Nurses Group (Research Committee). She is currently finishing a PhD focusing on telephone based supportive care for patients with haematological malignancies.